

Bullzi Security Inc. Names International President

Lake Mary, Florida, April 4, 2007 – Bullzi Security Inc. (BLLZ.pk), a leading international converged security provider, names Jim Kootnekoff as International President. Mr. Kootnekoff will be operating out of Calgary, Alberta Canada and will have full responsibility for all of Canada and Asia Pacific, and provide operational support for the Western United States.

According to Thomas Welch, founder and CEO of Bullzi Security, Inc., "Jim brings a great deal of knowledge and executive experience to Bullzi. With his strong background in the information security industry and success in Japan, Jim will help us to achieve our goal of becoming a top-tier international security firm."

Jim Kootnekoff has over ten years experience in the IT industry, seven years of which has been directly related to Information and Network Security. In 2001, Mr. Kootnekoff founded Secured Infrastructure Design Corporation (SIDC) in Tokyo, Japan, where he served as the Chairman and CEO. During his tenure, he grew the company to just over US $6M in revenue.

Mr. Kootnekoff stated, "I'm looking forward to this new opportunity and to share in the success of Bullzi Security. I have learned what it takes to form a company from the ground up in one of the most competitive and quality conscience environments in the world. I am going to bring that experience to Bullzi to help us become an even greater success than what Bullzi is today. Bullzi is an exciting firm with great vision and a solid future."

Mr. Welch added, "Collectively, we have a management team that has the knowledge and experience to be the leader in the converged security field. We look to leverage our position as a public company to raise capital to support our growth, as well as to acquire profitable firms in the security space."
